

WILL HAVE MUNICIPAL LEGISLATION

San Francisco Wins a Notable Victory at Special Election

BATTLE HARD FOUGHT

Reforms Will Include Eight Hour Day for Laborers at $3 a Day Minimum Wage.

San Francisco, Nov. 17.—Following the adoption at Tuesday's special election of a series of charter amendments, which for the first time in the history of this corporation-dominated city, puts San Francisco in the front rank of cities favoring advanced municipal legislation, the vote will be officially canvassed today by the board of supervisors prior to the presentation of the amendment to the legislature for ratification in January.

"Big business," which opposed most of the amendments probably will make its last stand in the legislature, but there is little likelihood that the legislature will fail to ratify as it is not now "controlled by the railroads."

The big problem of whether San Francisco, once corrupt, has purged herself entirely of corruption by the passage of these amendments remains to be seen. The amendments themselves mark a long step in advancing the science of municipal government in this country and several theories involved have never been tried in this country. The most vital amendment of all, which establishes majority rule by simplifying the official ballot, carried overwhelmingly.

"The amendment which gave light at the polls but defeated only one amendment against which it fought and that was the provision for the establishment of a free city employment bureau which failed a few hundred votes. The feature of the amendment providing for initiative, referendum and recall is that all public utility franchises and all franchise renewals must be submitted to a popular vote. This is believed to insure, as long as the amendment stands, the impossibility of a renewal of the recent graft scandals through the purchase of franchises from city officials.

Another important amendment provides that any one presenting a petition signed by ten or twenty indorsers may become a candidate for office and have the right to file a statement of principles running from 100 to 200 words, which will be printed by the city and mailed with a sample ballot to voters.

The amendment providing for the elimination of the party circle on the official ballots also provides for the rotation of the names of candidates, and in addition provides putting the names in a different order in different districts, so that each candidate will have the opportunity to head the ticket in some part of the city.

Another amendment was that providing a minimum wage for $3 a day for all laborers and an eight-hour day. This was fought desperately "on principle" by the so-called "interests," but was readily adopted. When the amendments were first submitted "the interests" proposed a number which failed in the special election. Among them were provisions that the salaries of all city officials should be increased placing the city library patronage under the mayor, which it is alleged would assist in building up a political machine.

The upshot of the whole election result is that the people have secured a hard and fast grip on the ballot boxes; that they signified their desire to run the city intelligently, demonstrated that they know what they wanted and they got it. Whether the people will continue to show discernment now that they have the political power in their own hands depends, say the reformers, upon the continued efforts of the forces of civic decency to prevent corruptionists presenting bad amendments and securing a favorable vote by the liberal use of money. San Francisco has started right they say, but the forces of decency must wage a continuous fight against corruption to retain for the people what they now have.

CONVENTION TO FRAME NEW CONSTITUTION MAY NOT BE HELD BEFORE THE YEAR 1913

Columbus, Nov. 17.—Judging from the returns received officially by Secretary of State Thompson, although all are not in, the holding of a constitutional convention was carried overwhelmingly at the recent election. The question now to determine is when the convention is to be held. There is a feeling that the gathering will be a thing of the past by the latter part of 1912.

Attorney General Denman does not care to discuss the subject, since it might be put up to him for an official opinion. He recognizes, however, that there is a grave question at best in determining when the convention should be held, and that after all it might reach the courts before it is settled.

Analyzing the situation, the first reference is found in Section 2, Article 16, of the constitution. This relates to the calling of a constitutional convention, and what procedure is necessary through the General Assembly in conclusion the section reads:

"The convention shall consist of as many members as the House of Representatives, who shall be chosen in the same manner, and shall meet within three months after their election."

One of the points to be considered first is the membership. As this changes each year, and is greater or smaller than a preceding year, what is to be the basis for the membership? This point, though, is not so important as that which provides for the election of the delegates.

The section referred to plainly says that the delegates shall be selected "in the same manner" as the members of the House of Representatives. Section 1, Article 17 of the constitution provides that the election of state and county officers shall be held in November in the even numbered years. This being the case, and as the delegates are to be selected "in the same manner" as members of the House of Representatives, they could not possibly be named until November, 1912.

AMERICAN SAILORS ARE "DOING" LONDON IN STYLE

London, Nov. 17.—The American sailors from the battleship Mississippi have upset staid England. The Mississippi is a lucky ship. Her crews win boat races and her boxers win matches and the result is that every man had a good sized role when they started to see London. They hired rubber-neck wagons from which they tossed coins to street beggars and the like. In a very short time the mob following the sailors blocked all traffic.

Credited to President Tom Lewis of the United Mine Workers. The Socialists expected it would live, up his vote with them, but Lewis said today they had no reason to expect any such thing. He says he will support any man who appeals to him as deserving support on the ground of personal merit.

BUTCHERS

Claim Reduced Prices Were Made By Packers to Curry Favor With the Public.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—The master butchers of this city claim that the talk of reduced meat prices is the result of the efforts of the big packers to curry favor with the public, because of impending federal prosecution. The butchers say if they can get contracts from the packers guaranteeing that the drop in meat prices will last even three months they will cut the retail prices. They deny the tales of exorbitant profits, saying if they clear 50 cents on a $5 investment they are lucky.

POLICE SEEK MISSING GIRL

Canal Dover, Nov. 17.—Leaving a note in which she said she was going away never to return, Miss Caille Bam-bark, aged 25, disappeared from the home of John F. Gerber for whom she had been working. Last night neither the girls' relatives nor Gerber can give a reason for her disappearance.

Several weeks ago she fitted Harry Schweitzer, a New Philadelphia youth, who denies having knowledge of the girl's whereabouts. Police in neighboring towns are looking for her.

PANAMA TO REMAIN REPUBLIC

Pres. Taft Gives Assurance U. S. Will Not Annex

REVIEWS THE MARINES

Hears Grievances of Men Wanting More Pay and At-Lands Banquet.

Colon, Panama, Nov. 17.—The United States will not annex Panama, unless some conduct on the part of the Panama people would leave no other course, but will give a guarantee to the independence of the Central American republic through which runs the great interoceanic canal.

President Taft made that clear during his speech here last night at the banquet given in his honor by the Panama people at the Hotel Central, in Panama City.

This formal and official definition of the attitude of the United States toward the Central American States, falling from the lips of President Taft, with such positive repudiation of the annexation talks, was received with enthusiasm.

President Taft said, in effect: "Go ahead and select your own officials, according to law, and so long as you maintain a responsible government, the United States will not interfere." The president arrived at Panama at 6:30 o'clock last evening from Culebra, after spending an interesting day in the great city, where he was completely surrounded by officers and men of the army, and by the occasional distant blasts sent up tons of rock.

The recent landings were visited, but they were in no wise disturbing, to the president or Colonel Goethals, the latter saying they will be taken care of as they occur until the degree of soil slope prevents a recurrence.

The president in the afternoon reviewed the marines at Camp Elliott later hearing grievance committee who asked for an increase in pay. This, however, is not likely to be granted, in view of the fact that the wages of the men are already high, and the cost of living much less than in the United States.

Immediately on his arrival in Panama, the president proceeded to the call on by President Arosemena, and then returned to the call at the palace, and then proceeded to the banquet.

After an address of official welcome by the Panama president, Mr. Taft said:

"President Arosemena and my friends of Panama, I am glad to accept your hospitality. As once in the case of Mexico, so now in the case of Panama, I venture to violate the customary limitations upon the movements of the president of the United States by leaving the soil of my own country to come beneath the flag and protection of a friendly neighbor."

"The birth of the republic of Panama and the peculiar interest which the United States has had since that birth in Panama's welfare and prosperity have found a common cause in the construction of the Panama canal. The treaty between the two countries makes the United States the guarantor of the Panama republic, and therefore, in a sense, the guardian of the liberties of her people."

"Our responsibility, therefore, for your government requires us closely to observe the course of conduct by those selected as the officials of your government after they are elected and to insist that they be elected according to law."

"We have no desire to add to the territory under our jurisdiction, with exception of what the operation of the canal may require."

"We have guaranteed your integrity as a republic, and for us to annex territory would be to violate that guarantee, and nothing would justify it on our part so long as Panama performs her part under the treaty."

"I wish to make this statement as emphatic as possible because irresponsible persons, without the slightest foundation in fact, have started a rumor that my visit to the isthmus is for the purpose of promoting annexation, when nothing could be further from the truth."

"Panama cannot be too prosperous, too healthy, too strong a government for the United States, and I know I speak the voice of the people of the United States when I say that they would be most reluctant to take over the responsibilities of government beyond the canal zone and would feel utterly dishonored in so doing, unless there was some conduct on the part of the Panama people which left them no other possible course."

"I am glad to say that there is not the slightest intention or probability that the Panamanian people will ever

THREATENS PRISON FOR OFFENDERS

Combine of Glass Men Makes Court Fine Excuse to Cut Wages

MOVE WAS CRITICIZED

By Attorney General Wickersham Who Regrets the Court's Leniency.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The department of justice, of which Attorney General Wickersham is the head, has taken notice of a newspaper dispatch from Pittsburgh to the effect that the corporations combined in the so-called window glass trust had served notice upon their employees that a wage reduction of 30 per cent was the only condition on which the factories could continue to manufacture. The dispatch further stated that the corporations attributed this ultimatum directly to the successful prosecution of the combination by the department of justice and the imposition by the United States court of fines upon the corporation and upon its officers and directors individually.

The department last night issued a statement outlining its view of the matter, and incidentally intimating that the reported action of the corporations, if substantiated by the fact, would indicate a very mistaken leniency on the part of the courts, which it is hoped would not be allowed to "step back."

This intimation was made as indicating an intention on the part of the department to insist in similar cases upon jail sentences rather than fines.

The attorney general expressed indignation at such statement and strong doubt of its reliability. The statement of the department is as follows:

"The evidence obtained by the department shows that the Imperial Window Glass Company was organized in April, 1909. It manufactured no glass, but was purely a selling agency, buying the entire output of 50 or more manufacturers of window glass in some 10 different states. The agreement between it and the manufacturers from which it bought provided that no glass should be sold by the latter except to the Imperial Window Glass Company. The stock of the Imperial company was divided among the manufacturers."

"It was not until the company had brought into combination with it, under such contracts, manufacturers of about 97 per cent of the entire hand-blown window glass manufactured in the United States that it was determined to commence business. It began business in January, 1910. By October 1, 1910, prices had been advanced 70 per cent over what they were in April, 1909. The evidence showed that in the first three months of its operation the Imperial company earned net profits equal to its entire capital stock."

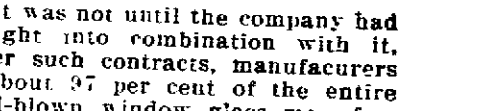

"The large advance in prices was subsequent to this initial period, and the evidence showed that during the 10 months of its business the combination cleared about $1,000,000, or 400 per cent on its capital stock. It leased 17 factories at high rentals for the sole purpose of keeping them closed and removing their products from the market. Its expenses during this period were $125,000 for one year, for leases and watchman of those closed down factories."

"Indictments were found against the 17 directors and officers of the company, each one of whom was either president or a prominent officer of one of the companies, who had entered into an agreement to sell their product only to the Imperial company. Demurrers to the indictments were overruled and the case was set for trial in Pittsburgh on Monday, Nov. 14. A few days previous to this date overtures were made to the attorney general on behalf of the defendants, suggesting that they would plead nolo contendere, the substantial equivalent of a

The two lost ads above were inserted in Wednesday's Advocate, one by a Newark woman and the other by a Licking county resident.

Within two hours after the Advocate's edition went off the press Wednesday night, both purses were returned to this office. One purse was picked by an Advocate newsboy on the street and the other was found in the Kirby store by a woman who was shopping there.

In each case the owners of the pocketbooks gave the finders $1 for returning their property.

These instances are only two of many examples of the effectiveness of the Advocate's classified columns. The fact that the Advocate is printing more classified advertising every night than any other paper in the city only emphasizes the fact that it is the best advertising medium in Licking county.

A strange coincidence in the above mentioned cases is that the pocketbook found in the Kirby store was picked up by a sister of the woman who lost the black purse on the street.

HEART and HOME TALKS

Little Problems of The Home.

Should a Girl Woo?

A GIRL writes that she cares very much for a man, a very good friend of hers who at times has seemed to show that there was more than mere friendship in his regard for her. "But he is one of your terribly slow men," she writes, "positively inert. Well, probably just jog along being friends for years and years, unless I get busy. He just won't exert himself to take any definite step. And if any girl came along who was fixed so she'd see more of him than I do, and happened to care desperately for him, she'd land him. I know she would. I know I can make him happy, and if he married me he would be perfectly content. So why shouldn't I go in to win him? I know convention is against such things. But I care for him, and why should I let him slip through my fingers for fear of being thought forward or bold, or something of the kind?"

This sentiment is getting to be rather rampant nowadays. Bernard Shaw openly says woman is the hunter and runs down her game. He says, furthermore, that poor man has no chance of escape. Other writers do not put it quite so boldly. They say that men are so preoccupied with business, or able to live so luxuriously and comfortably in apartments, that unless marriage is to become as extinct as the fables women will have to take the matter in hand and do the wooing. Others ask pointedly why should a maiden sit meekly with hands folded and eyes downcast, and make no effort to detain the lover she wants when he fair would pass her up for some other damsel? Indeed, they say, do these modern writers, why shouldn't she be as free to express her preference as he?

All of which shows the world is getting terribly topsy turvy and the suffragists coming to their own.

But to consider this plea seriously, should this girl try to win the man she loves, should she be the active agent and he the passive in their love-making?

Would such a man be worth winning? Would she be happy with him after she had thus won him? A story is told of a woman who had such a suitor. He spent evening after evening

Recipes for Nov. 25 1910

Blackberry Bread. Open a jar of canned blackberries and heat to the scalding point. Butter stale slices of bread, arrange on a platter and pour the fruit over them. Make two layers and serve very cold with milk or cream.

Little Chocolate Custards. Allow to each half pint of milk one egg, a tiny pinch of salt, a tablespoonful of sugar, one tablespoonful of grated chocolate and a few drops of vanilla. Melt the chocolate over hot water. Blend gradually with the hot milk and the egg beaten with sugar and salt and turn into cups or dish. Stand in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven until firm in the center.

Saved An Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. It's positively guaranteed for stomach, liver or kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c. at F. D. Hall's.

A Bit Too Clever.

Holman Hunt used to tell how a carpenter saved one of his best known pictures from a serious error. The man was doing some odd jobs about the house and was found frowning at "The Shadow of the Cross" in the studio—the picture in which Christ, who has been saving a plank in the workshop, rises to his full height and stretches, his shadow forming a crucifix.

"Well?" asked the artist interrogatively.

"Don't think much of it, mister," was the blunt comment.

"Why?" demanded Hunt, amused, but a trifle nettled.

"Any one that can saw wood without making any sawdust is a sight cleverer any I ever seed," was the answer.

It was true—the floor was clean beneath the bench!

Some Nautical Facts.

A knot is 6,080 feet long. The distance from New York to Liverpool is 3,064 nautical miles by the northern track and 3,135 by the southern track. The former course is taken by vessels bound for New York, the latter by vessels bound for Liverpool. From Liverpool to New York the distances are respectively 3,039 and 3,100 miles.

In estimating records the points taken on either side are Sandy Hook and Daunt's rock, Queensdown harbor. The first light sighted on the British coast is the Bull, Cow and Calfr, Ireland, and on the American coast either Nantucket or Fire Island.

Famous "Pint of Cough Syrup" Recipe

No Better Remedy at Any Price. Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of granulated sugar and 1/2 pint of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of pure Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of $2. It never spoils. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold instantly, and will usually stop the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough, and has a pleasant taste. Also excellent for bronchial trouble, throat tickle, sore lungs and asthma, and an unequalled remedy for whooping cough.

THE VALUE OF PROPRIETARY MEDICINES

is proven by the very large percentage of physicians prescribing for some remedies found in every drug store in America, but as they are written in Latin few patients realize this fact. The old standard proprietary medicines like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that have stood the test of time, deserve a place in every family medicine chest, and it is most certain they would not be prescribed by physicians if they were able to devise a formula equally as efficacious.

SPIES

ARE WATCHING MADERO, WHO ESCAPED SOME TIME AGO FROM MEXICAN PRISON.

Revolution is Feared as Large Quantity of Rifles and Ammunition Have Been Seized.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 17.—Francisco I. Madero, recognized as leader of the anti-Diaz party in Mexico, and a resident of San Antonio, since his escape recently from a Mexican prison, is being watched in his movements here by sixty secret service men. It is said today by local police authorities. To the vigilance of these detectives is credited largely the discovery in twelve Mexican states of Madero's alleged plot to throw the Mexican republic into a revolution.

The spies on Madero are principally Mexicans bearing authority from President Diaz and they are said to have the co-operation of the United States federal operatives. Despatches say the revolutionists plans have been frustrated in twelve of the states, and it is believed that a serious outbreak has been averted. With the discovery of the movement, believed to have been conducted from this city by Madero authorities found that a great quantity of firearms and ammunition have been shipped from San Antonio. It is said that fully 2,000 rifles and thousands of rounds of ammunition now are concealed in caves along the Rio Grande river.

In Mexican cities where revolutionists were foiled in their attempts to incite a revolution quantities of arms and ammunition were seized. Madero was a candidate for the Mexican presidency, opposing Diaz's re-election. He was imprisoned shortly before the Mexican elections, released on bond two months ago and fled to the United States.

AMUSEMENTS

LAST NIGHT'S ATTRACTION.

The show season was ushered in at the Auditorium theatre last night, somewhat tardy, 'tis true, but with full gusto. The initial performance was a bright little musical comedy, "A Winning Miss," which has some catchy songs and a chorus that had the voices and ability to sing them well.

The story of the show owes its origin to a yacht race, two contestants for the race and then for The Girl, into which circumstances is interwoven the cause for the existence of J. Barrington Ham, alias Pinkerton Pink and Yankee Lady Skipper, all of which personalities resolve into the old favorite in comedy, Max Bloom. He is the same hard worker for the laughs as of old, and, incidentally, they came fast last night. He was well supported by Hattie De Von as Anastasia May. She is a clever comedienne and in spite of being hampered by a cold, her duo songs with Bloom were good.

The big voice of the cast was that of Clarence Backous, baritone, and he knew how to use it. His big song numbers were "Land of Tomorrow," "Love Serenade," and "Eve," sung with Lorraine Lester, and as a singer he is a big success, but as an actor he is somewhat of a failure. He at times seemed unable to get away from a stiffness and self-consciousness.

Both contingents of the chorus were good looking and the song numbers were pleasingly costumed. The male members had remarkable voices and for the size of the chorus, the volume really surprised. The staging of the piece was very pretty, and in the ensemble numbers, "Firefly and Glow Worm" and "Will o' the Wisp," some pretty electrical effects were introduced.

Some others of the cast deserving mention for hard work are Lorraine Lester as the Winning Miss, Percy Chapman as Billy Brown and J. E. Coglans as Capt. Mike.

The next attraction at the Auditorium is "Alias Jimmy Valentine," on Friday night. The play created a sensation in the east and every magazine in the country devoted space in praise of it.

"ALIAS JIMMY VALENTINE."

The name of "Alias Jimmy Valentine," the bank burglar with fingers so sensitive that he can open a vault by the sense of touch, without knowledge of the combination, has become a household word throughout the country, though the play in which he figures has been seen in a few cities only. Great has been the success of Paul Armstrong's play by that name in its two years in New York at the historic Wallack's theatre. The country-wide reputation of "Alias Jimmy Valentine" has emanated hitherto largely in the favorable reports of the play sent out from the eastern metropolis.

"Alias Jimmy Valentine" is this season being sent on tour by Liebler & Co., and local theatre-goers will have a chance to see him Friday, Nov. 18, when he fills an engagement at the Auditorium theatre.

"Alias Jimmy Valentine" is not a crook in the play. His bank looting days are supposed to have elapsed by the time we first meet him in Sing Sing prison. He has met "the girl," fallen for the decent girl game, as one of his pals expresses it, and his one ambition is to keep clear of the police and to live an honest life. This is not an easy thing for Jimmy. The police still have something on him for crimes committed in the past, and it is only by outwitting them completely as to his identity that Jimmy manages to keep out of their clutches.

Finally in one of the most thrilling scenes staged in recent years, Jimmy is forced to reveal his identity in the presence of the girl he loves and the detective that has been on his track. It would spoil the point to reveal in advance the way in which Jimmy extricates himself from the ensuing difficulties.

A splendid company will present "Alias Jimmy Valentine" in this city for one performance only.

THE ORPHEUM.

Do not fail to see the champion singers, Ellis Blomphim and Mona Hehr, in their comedy singing sketch introducing fun for you all. Dixie Harris and Francis, in their unique singing and talking specialty, and Ethel Ray, the little lady that will please you all in her songs and characters.

The Gypsy Wanderers will remain over for the balance of the week. Orpheumscope, a feature film.

Direct from record-breaking runs in New York and Chicago, "The Fourth Estate," the great play of newspaper life by Joseph Medill Patterson and Miss Harriet Ford, will be seen for the first time in Columbus at the Colonial theatre next Monday evening, Nov. 21. The engagement is for one week and includes the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees, and a special matinee on Thanksgiving day.

"The Fourth Estate" is a great play of newspaper life and by a newspaper man who knows the game. Not only is the play beautifully acted, but it is a nature which not only thrills with their power and startle with their unexpectedness, but the theme of the play is so big, its great questions so easily a part of everyday life and problems of every man and woman who sees it, that it makes an irresistible appeal, not only to the senses, but to the mentality. The play has been staged with a breadth and massiveness which could only make for popularity. Its scenes are marvels of stagecraft.

Mail orders, when accompanied by a remittance, will receive prompt attention. No better advice to theatre-goers and to non-theatre-goers as well, can be given than the terse editorial written by the Chicago Tribune, "Go see it." Prices 25c to $1.50.

AT HIGH SCHOOL TONIGHT.

Tonight at the High School Auditorium you can hear one of the most unique and entertaining attractions on the Lyceum platform. Scenes given in full costume, two scenes given from the grand opera "Martha." Mr. Harry Lombard, who is now the baritone of the company, will please you. Mr. Flora and Miss Simpson need no introduction to Newark people. Miss Lucas and Miss Hart have also been heard in Newark. This entertainment without doubt will be the most pleasing heard in Newark this season. Admission 15 and 25 cents. Secure your reserved seats at Erman's drug store (Arcade) and meet the Floras tonight.

EXCELLENT WORK DONE BY NURSE CHAPTER

Many Homes Have Been Benefitted. To Ask Contributions From the Public.

It has been some time since the Visiting Nurse Chapter of the King's Daughters has made an appeal to the public for contributions. This does not mean, however, that there has been no work done by the chapter. For two and a half years the work of the visiting nurse has been carried on. Many a home has been visited and numerous sick have been benefited and made more comfortable by the ministrations of the visiting nurse. This nurse is secured by application of the attending physician, and very rarely fails to respond promptly to such a call. Not only has the visiting nurse made the calls that were expected of her, but in several cases an additional nurse has been supplied by the chapter for extra night work where the cases have been critical, or emergency cases. All of this means considerable planning and considerable work by the King's Daughters comprising the chapter. It also means constant expense. Just now the funds are getting low and an appeal is made to the public for a generous contribution to aid in carrying on this work. Heretofore the funds have been raised by what is well known in Newark as the King's Daughters' "Tag Day." This year a little different plan will be adopted. On Wednesday, Nov. 27, boxes will be placed in all the business houses possible and on street corners around the square. You will not be solicited as usual, but you are earnestly requested to place a contribution in one of these boxes. Every one, man, woman or child, is asked to give at least one penny toward the visiting nurse work. Do not be afraid that your contribution will be taken from the box by the wrong party. These boxes will be under police protection and will be well cared for.

You have had many things to be thankful for during the past year. Begin your Thanksgiving a little earlier this year by giving a thank offering toward the support of the Visiting Nurse Chapter of the King's Daughters.

NO HEARTBURN DYSPEPSIA OR SICK STOMACH

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed, out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin, and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach. Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery at any drug store, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure almost any chronic case of Dyspepsia, indigestion or any other Stomach trouble.

THREATENS

plea of guilty, provided the attorney general would agree to recommend to the court that only fines be inflicted.

"This was refused as the attorney general considered, and so stated to the defendants' counsel that the combination was one of the most flagrant and intentional violators of the anti-trust law which had been brought to the attention of the department.

"The attorney further informed counsel that he had given directions to have the cases pressed for conviction and to urge the imposition of sentences of imprisonment upon the principal offenders in case of conviction.

"The following day the defendants appeared in court in Pittsburgh and interposed pleas of nolo contendere, and despite the opposition of the district attorney and special assistant governor, the court only fined each of the individual defendants $500 and the corporation $2,500 and the costs.

"It was stated to the court that the combination had been dissolved and this was one of the considerations on which the court let the defendants go on a mere bail. It was also stated that the combination during its existence had increased the wages of the glass blowers and as a matter of fact the directors' minutes disclosed the adoption of one resolution increasing wages 12 1-2 per cent. Whether this was carried out or not did not appear, but at all events as the combination had earned about 400 per cent profit on its capital stock during the year of its existence, an increase of 12 1-2 per cent in wages can hardly be regarded as so entirely dependent upon the continued existence of the combination as to justify a reduction of 25 per cent in wages upon the dissolution of the combination. If the rumored resolutions should prove to be substantiated by fact, it would indicate a very mistaken leniency on the part of the court in imposing sentence, which it is hoped would not be followed on any other similar occasion."

EMPLOYEES WILL PAY THE FINE.

Workers' Wages Will Be Cut 30 Per Cent by Glass Company.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 17.—The Imperial Window Glass Company, which is undergoing liquidation under an edict of the federal court, has issued a statement in explanation of reports that it intended to cut the wages of the workmen 30 per cent as a result of the fines imposed. The statement says:

"When the Imperial Window Glass Company was formed, hand factories were suffering from competition with the machine factories. Many of them were idle, and others were selling glass below cost. Skilled workmen were paid less wages than at any other time in the history of the industry in this country.

"The Imperial was composed of about 60 out of the possible 100 hand factories in the United States, and its first move after the organization was complete was to increase wages about 15 per cent. Having worked through the fire of 1909 and 1910 at the increase, a wage conference was called, which ended in Detroit, and resulted in an increase averaging 30 per cent additional for the men. This was based upon the increased price of glass, the profit of the Imperial being between 6 and 7 per cent. This wage increase affected about 10,000 men.

"Under the order of the United States courts the Imperial Glass Co. is now in liquidation and as soon as its stock of glass is disposed of it will surrender its West Virginia charter.

"That will leave the various hand companies to compete individually with the machine factories. Already all the hand glass factories are shut down, with the exception of six, which are co-operative concerns. The others have notified their men that they can be operated only under the old Lake Erie scale, with glass at its present price, that is a reduction of 35 per cent from the wages paid the Imperial Glass company."

Laxative Cough Syrup Cures When All Fail.

Make It At Home.

This fine recipe when prepared at home, is said to make the surest acting cough cure ever heard of. It has cured many in 5 hours by the clock. Fine for la grippe, colds, sore throat, and chronic bronchitis of old people, too. Any one can easily make it at home—a full pint costing less than 80 cents. Obtain a 2½ ounce package of essence mentho-laxene and make it into a pint of syrup by following simple directions contained in package. You make the syrup of granulated sugar and mix. Eight to ten doses daily create a laxative action of the bowels and the cough and cold are soon cured as the poisons are carried out of the system. It relieves the tightest cough in one hour and cures the chronic cough of old people quicker and surer than anything ever heard of; while it is just fine for children's coughs, as they like it, and by its laxative tonic effect it prevents pneumonia, fever, and other complications of colds.

Those in this city who have tried it, think it is the best thing ever discovered to relieve and cure throat and lung trouble.

Here is the formula:
Essence mentho-laxene 2½ Ozs.
Granulated sugar syrup 13½ Ozs.
Compared with labeled syrups, you save $2 or $4 by making it at home.

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

ENGINEERS WILL DANCE AND BANQUET

Closing Session of Quarterly Meeting Continued Thursday Afternoon. Reception Last Night.

Thursday morning's session of the quarterly meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, being held in Newark, was called to order by the chairman, Mr. C. C. Bobo, at 9 o'clock. There were a goodly number of the engineers present and the secretary, Mr. W. W. Puckett, was in his chair. Considerable business of importance was transacted at the morning session, but as all the work was of a secret nature, nothing could be given out for publication. The closing session convened Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. This evening a banquet for the engineers and their families will be served in Woodman's Hall, in the Woodbridge block, on the South Side of the Public Square, after which several hours will be devoted to dancing and having a good social time.

Among the visiting engineers who are present are R. Grumm, Philadelphia; J. A. Hall, Baltimore; John Ormsby, Washington, Ind.; Lloyd Hard, Chillicothe; J. F. McCulgan, Chillicothe; G. Bell, Chicago, O.; Jas. Gabriel, Washington, Ind.; Byron Robinson, Washington, Ind.; William Cadden, Chillicothe; W. M. Parlett, Baltimore; George H. Roberts, Philadelphia; Dan. C. Smith, Chicago, O.; P. Sheridan, McKeen, W. Va.; Geo. Stoner, Philadelphia; G. W. Hard, McKeen; H. Daugherty, Cleveland, representative to the grand lodge, Jack Hudson, Philadelphia; W. R. Lone, Pittsburgh; D. C. Thomas, Chillicothe; Frank Dulk, Garrett.

Forgetting for awhile their work and its dangers, the engineers of the B. and O. of the George W. Sturmer Division 353, met Wednesday night in the High School Auditorium and held their quarterly meeting. A decidedly interesting program had been arranged by the committee in charge and a large audience was present to enjoy it.

The meeting was the first that had been held in Newark for a long time and every effort was made to make it one to be remembered and in this the engineers of Newark were entirely successful. The Auditorium was prettily decorated with palms, ferns and potted plants and presented a very pleasing appearance.

The following program was given: Piano solo—Miss Glenn. Address of Welcome—Mayor Ankele. Song—Newark Quartet. Address—F. M. Kircher. Address—Rev. B. M. O'Byrne. Address—Hon. Edward Kibler. Song—Newark Quartet. Recitation—Lillian McNeely. Address—Rev. J. Morrison Thomas. Song—Newark Quartet. Address—Bro. Daugherty. Address—Mrs. Mary E. Cassell. Piano solo—Miss Glenn. Recitation—Clotilde Howard. Song, Casey Jones—Railroad Club. Mayor John M. Ankele, in his address of welcome spoke feelingly of the railroad men and especially of the engineers whom he had known, many of them intimately for several years, and he assured the visiting "throttle shovers" that they were more than welcome to Newark and that the citizens were glad to be able to entertain them if even for a short time.

F. M. Kircher of Philadelphia spoke at length on the benefits derived for the Brotherhood and he said that few organizations were more highly regarded than the locomotive engineers. Generally a steady, hardworking body of men they commanded the respect of the company for which they worked, and by their organization they had been able to accomplish much for themselves and would be able to accomplish more in the future.

Decidedly interesting, of a complimentary nature, were the remarks of Rev. B. M. O'Byrne, who spoke of the character of the average railroad engineer and in comparing characters he compared conditions existing in railroad circles in this country and in Europe. The audience listened carefully to the facts as presented by the reverend gentleman.

Hon. Edward Kibler spoke of what had been done for the railroad men by the law making bodies of the state in the past few years, and what additional benefits were needed by the men composing the railroad engineers. Rev. J. Morrison Thomas spoke of the constant danger an engineer was in while on duty, and he showed how this comradeship with danger brought out character in the men who held themselves responsible for hundreds of human lives every time they made a trip.

Rev. J. M. Ryan spoke of the big-heartedness of the railroad men and said that while they made big money few ever saved anything and for this habit of spending too freely he verbally chastized the men and they fully appreciated the wisdom of his remarks.

Mrs. Mary E. Cassell, vice president of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, gave a thoroughly enjoyable talk and dwelt especially upon the insurance feature of the order. She explained what good this feature had done and she greatly impressed her hearers by her earnestness.

Gov. Judson Harmon was invited to be present at the meeting but a previous engagement made his appearance impossible and a letter of regret from him was read. A letter of regret was also read from President Fitch of the Insurance department.

Red Blood Does Away With the "Blues."

"Blues" are mostly merely the lack of red corpuscles in the blood. Depression, despondency, lack of interest or energy—you'd be surprised if you really knew how much a run-down condition of the nerves has to do with it. If you're troubled with headaches—loss of appetite—can't digest what you eat—that, of course, means stomach troubles as one of the necessary disorders.

Hazen's Glycerole of Celery has—as its name suggests—for its foundation the almost miraculous healing properties of the vegetable celery. It contains no narcotics—no harmful ingredients of any kind. One of its ingredients is the valuable German Chamomile. Another is the soft glycerine. Still another, the old standby, your grandmother's fresh catnip herb, the leaves and flowers. All are carefully blended by repeated tests and experiment that there is scarcely one chance in a thousand for failure.

This is the process. The celery first relaxes—then strengthens and builds the nerves. The chamomile, with the aid of one or two other ingredients, takes immediate hold of the blood—makes it red, rich—makes it create energy. Glycerole and its aids at once commence work on the stomach, bowels and other internal organs—putting them quickly in perfect running order. Hence the entire system is affected equally and at once. You feel better the next day.

Ask your druggist for Hazen's Glycerole of Celery. He has it in stock. Be sure you get our 24-page book, "Do You Suffer?" It is free.

He Was Cautious.

Frederick the Great was always fond of disputations, but as he generally terminated the discussion by collaring his antagonist and kicking his shins few of his guests were disposed for an argument. He asked one of his suit why he did not venture to give his opinion on some particular question. "It is impossible, your majesty," was the reply, "to express an opinion before a sovereign who has such convictions and wears such very thick boots."

Live Table Talk.

"I hope you will be interested in tender gentleman," said the hostess. "I have assigned him to take you out to dinner."

"I shall be," responded the lady addressed. "That gentleman was formerly my husband, and he's behind with his alimony."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"I was in hopes when I married that I could give my wife everything she wanted."

"Well?"

"I didn't think her yearning capacity would be so much greater than my earning capacity."—Washington Herald.

Murder Revealed by a Dream.

Perhaps the most amazing crime mystery ever solved by a dream was that revealed by a murder trial a couple of generations ago. The dead body of Mr. Norway, an inoffensive Cornish gentleman, had been found by the roadside between Wadebridge and Bodmin, brutally murdered. No trace of the murderer could be found, and the mystery of the crime seemed beyond all solution, when Mr. Norway's brother, a naval officer, arrived in England and told the following singular story:

On the very night of his brother's murder, when he was on his ship in the West Indies, he saw him in a dream walking along the Bodmin road, when from a dark recess in the hedge two ruffians sprang out, slew and robbed him and then made their way to a house in Wadebridge, which he saw vividly in his dream. To this house he conducted the police officers, and there he found the very two men whom in his vision he had seen commit the murder. They confessed and suffered the extreme penalty of the law.—Pearson's Weekly.

Horse Dentists.

In every large city there are now dentists who devote their entire attention to horses, and they are kept surprisingly busy the year round. The equine dentist is of course provided with special instruments for the extraction and filling of the teeth of animals needing attention. It is rather interesting to observe an operation in horse dentistry. One of the instruments, called a speculum, presents the appearance of an ivory handle and four small bars of nickel working on a ratchet and crossing one another in such a manner as to form a hollow square that can be made large or small by the turning of a screw. Setting this device to the proper size, the horse dentist will slip it gently into the suffering animal's mouth, which, during the operation, is kept partly open by a groom, and when the instrument is fitted upon, say, one of the back teeth the beast's mouth is kept open as wide as possible.—Harper's Weekly.

The Parson Bird.

Among the feathered inhabitants of New Zealand there is a bird called the parson bird, or tun. It is about the size and shape of a blackbird, but has a pair of delicate white tufts at its throat and is a glossy dark green otherwise. It can be taught to crow, to speak, to whistle tunes, and, besides these tricks, it has a repertory which is not often equaled by any other feathered songster. At vespers it has a note like the toll of a bell or the clear, high note of an organ. It can mimic every bird in the bush to perfection. It will break off in the middle of an exquisite melody and indulge in a strange melody of sounds which are impossible to describe. But if you can imagine "the combination of a cough, a laugh, a sneeze, with the smashing of a pane of glass," it will be some approach to the idea.

There may be plenty of room at the top, but not for the small potatoes.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

An illustration of Church Union will be the theme of an address to men by Rev. J. A. Barrett of the Fifth Street Baptist Church Sunday at 3:30 p. m. at the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Bennett was a delegate from Newark to the International convention of the Y. M. C. A. at Toronto, Canada, and was so impressed with what he saw and heard that he has agreed to take this extra duty on Sunday and bring the inspiration of that great meeting to all his Newark friends. Every man in town is welcome.

A new kind of Bible class is proposed at the Y. M. C. A. to begin next Sunday at 4:15 p. m. So many men these days are interested in what are known as "social" questions that the famous Professor Jeremiah W. Jenks of Cornell University has prepared a text book on "The Social Teachings of Jesus" and the proposed group to meet at the Y. M. C. A. each Sunday will under the leadership of Mr. Harris, take up a series of very live subjects. That Prof. Jenks has arranged from the records of the life and teachings of Jesus in the four gospels.

The class will furnish an opportunity to compare views in a friendly fashion and to see where the right principle of living is to be found. Men from the city and from the ranks of labor of any kind will be very welcome to visit the class and enjoy it.

CURES RHEUMATISM

If It Don't You Can Get Your Money Back Says Evans' Drug Store.

Now when Evans' Drug Store, the well known druggist, makes such an offer as this, where, Oh where, is the man or woman full of Uric Acid poison, which is the same as Rheumatism who is going to turn it down?

Evans' Drug Store has sold a whole lot of Rheuma these last few months and if it didn't do as advertised, he couldn't afford to make the offer. Here is more proof: Porter Smith, DeWitt, N. Y., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism for about 25 years and the disease had become chronic. I began taking Rheuma with little faith in its virtues but was better from the first day. I began its use and at this time have no more pain."—Feb. 26, 1910.

Rheuma never shirks its duty. It begins with the first dose to act on the kidneys, liver, stomach and blood and to eliminate rheumatic poison from the whole system. 50 cents at Evans' Drug Store, or mailed by the Rheuma Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Send for free trial bottle.

DROPSY only symptom of some deep seated cause. Heart, Kidneys, Liver. Dr. Walton, Trust Building, 11-14th-st.

OBITUARY

MR. WILLIAM M. SMOOTS.

Mr. William M. Smoots, one of the oldest and best known residents of Licking county, died very suddenly at his home several miles south of Utica on Tuesday morning. He had gone out to do some work and not returning to the house as soon as expected his wife went in search of him. She found him lying on the ground, with life extinct. About 35 years ago while taking part in a big jollification in Utica he had one of his hands blown off by the premature discharge of a cannon. He is survived by his wife and one daughter. A son was killed three years ago while he was trying to board a train to ride to Utica.

MRS. MARY E. REED.

Reed, a well known and highly esteemed woman of this city, died at her home, 35 Cottage street, on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock after an illness of some days with pneumonia, aged 52 years. The deceased is survived by her husband and five children, Mrs. Ella Young, of South Fifth street; Clifford, of near Vanattsburg; Meredith B. Reed, of North Fourth street, and Delcie and Lester Reed, who live at home. The funeral services will be held at the Fourth Street Church of Christ on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Ward, and the interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

VALUABLE PAINTINGS

AT NORTON'S. The Norton Book Store has on exhibition some very valuable paintings, one of which is the original painting which was used to illustrate "Koch of the Border." It is valued at $500, and is a work of art. They are well worth a close inspection.

Strangely enough the people who are dull are greater bores than those who are sharp.

When a woman reaches 35 she feels that there ought to be a society for the prevention of old maids.

Those who never try will never triumph.

No man wants a return ticket on the road to success.

All that glitters isn't gold, especially glittering generalities.

In a game of freeze-out the loser is apt to get hot about it.

Some people are so lazy that even their livers won't work.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of I-told-you-so!

In the matter of brightness it is difficult for some fellows to live up to their neckties.

Some fellows are so sympathetic as to actually feel sorry for the people they owe money to.

Many a girl has too many strings to her beau.

COX

Not Present at Wedding of Hermann's Daughter and Politician Think a Split Has Occurred.

Cincinnati, Nov. 17.—Politicians are busy today discussing the fact that George B. Cox and his wife failed to attend the wedding of Gary Hermann's daughter last night, and neither did they send any wedding gift. There is a general tendency to accept this as confirmation of the rumor that Cox and Hermann have split politically.

The Pennsylvania Railway company always up to date in everything. Thursday took quite a number of its ticket agents from the Western division, including the Pan-Handle, to New York City, for the purpose of looking over the magnificent new station in that city and also with the idea of having them get acquainted with the situation there. The party was taken through in a special car. Mr. J. L. Worth, the efficient ticket agent at this point, was one of the lucky ones. He joined the party here at noon Thursday.

Word comes from Baltimore that the promotion is announced of A. P. Prendergast, master mechanic at Mt. Clare, Baltimore, to be superintendent of motive power of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern at Cincinnati, succeeding John Hair, resigned. The appointment went into effect Wednesday, the 16th.
